PART I—Section 2.

GENERAL.

No. G. 11525—G. M. 98-15-38, dated 14*th February* 1916.

The following rules for the use and occupation of the Government Bungalows on the Nandi Hill during the hot season of the year 1916, are published for general information:—

All the bungalows on the Hill will be available for occupation by visitors during the season.

(a) Cunningham Bungalow.—This contains six blocks (four large and two small) which may be reserved on payment of an annual fee. (Vide clause 7.)

In the case of the larger blocks, a fee of Re. 1 per block per day will be levied from the occupier besides 8 annas for every additional member of his family or party occupying the same block, children under five years of age being free. Half the above rates will be charged for the smaller blocks.

(b) Cubbon Bungalow.—This contains eight blocks (single and double). A fee of one rupee and a half per day will be levied from the occupier of any of the double rooms and 8 annas for every additional member of his family or party occupying the same block, children under five years being free. The rates for the single rooms will be 1 rupee per room per day and 8 annas for every additional occupant, excepting children under five years.

(c) Glentilt.—This bungalow contains three blocks.

A fee of Re. 1 per block per day will be levied from the occupier besides 8 annas for every additional member of his family or party occupying the same block, children under five years of age being free.

(d) Brown's Bungalow (former travellers' bungalow).
(e) The Lodge (former inspection lodge).
(f) Krishnama Naidu's Bungalow.

These three bungalows contain three blocks each, and a fee of Re. 1 per block per day will be levied from the occupying visitors besides 8 annas for every additional member of the same family occupying the same block, children under five years of age being free.

(g) Sankey's Bungalow.—This contains five large rooms with two cook rooms. The rooms are furnished to accommodate four visitors each.

The fee for each occupant is 4 annas per diem, children under five years of age being admitted free.

2. The peons and servants of visitors will be permitted to occupy servants' rooms, free of charge, if accommodation can be spared.

3. Applications for accommodation in the bungalows exceeding three days must be made to the Superintendent, Government Gardens, Lal-Bagh, Bangalore.

4. Visitors going up for a shorter period than three days need not give notice, but in that case accommodation cannot be guaranteed.

5. Visitors occupying a bungalow between sunrise and sunset only are subject to half fee.

6. Applications for accommodation for periods of more than five days during the months of April and May cannot be definitely replied to till the first week of March preceding, nor will it be possible during those months to guarantee accommodation for more than fifteen days. Visitors desiring to stay longer must renew their applications before the expiry of the fifteen days.

7. The rooms in the Cunningham Bungalow may, with Government sanction, be reserved for the season on payment of a reserving fee of Rs. 50 per block which ensures that the room will be at the reserver's disposal at all times during the season subject to the rules in force.

8. When not required, these rooms may be let to other visitors on the understanding that they will vacate them immediately when asked to do so.

9. The rent of each room in the motor sheds* is 8 annas per day.

10. Rickshaws and chairs† can be had for ascending the Hill by previous arrangement with the Hill staff or on intimation while booking at Bangalore. The hire for a rickshaw is 8 annas for a trip up or down, or 12 annas if occupied by two persons and the hire for a chair is 4 annas.

* There are two motor sheds—one at Sultanpet and the other on the Bangalore side of the Hill.

† From the Nandi Station there is a short cut (1½ miles with 1,775 steps) viâ Sultanpet. On this trip only chairs can be used.

11. The wages for each rickshaw and chair cooly are 6 annas per single trip or 9 annas for return trip on the same day. Four to six coolies are required in each case.

12. Coolies' wages for carrying baggage are 4 annas per cooly per trip for a heavy load and 3 annas for a light load.

13. All coolies' wages must be paid by the visitors on discharging the coolies.

14. In every room will be placed an inventory of furniture and other Government property placed at the disposal of the visitors for the time being, as also a list of charges and a set of house rules which regulate the use of kitchens and out-houses, loan of crockery and the services and duties of the staff attached to the building.

Visitors will be held responsible for damage done by themselves or their servants to the bungalow or furniture or other articles. All articles injured or broken must be paid for prior to the visitors' departure according to the scale fixed by the Superintendent, Government Gardens.

15. At all the bungalows, visitors can make their own arrangement for food. A Brahmin cook is attached to the Sankey's Bungalow, and arrangements can be made here for vegetarian Indian meals.

16. The Hill staff will assist, if required, in securing food supplies on cash payment. Indian and European stores are kept for sale in the Cubbon Bungalow.

17. The quantity of water required will, as far as possible, be supplied at the house at 3 pies per pot.

18. There are two tennis courts in the fort which may be secured for the morning or evening by booking a day previous, the charges (which are payable in advance) being 8 annas per period, inclusive of the use of the net.

19. All fees and demands in accordance with the rules must be paid by the visitors before leaving the Hill and proper receipt obtained. Any charges considered irregular or exorbitant can be paid on protest and refund claimed from the Superintendent, Government Gardens, whose decision will be final in this case.

20. All officials in the service of Government are subject to the fees and rules as herein laid down.

21. Every visitor should sign the arrival and departure books and any complaints or remarks may be recorded in the latter.

22. Visitors should see to the proper observance of the rules by themselves and their servants and should insist on the latter behaving in a decent and orderly manner.

23. The above rules apply only to this season and are subject to such changes as may be deemed necessary.
